DALY CITY TO HAVE NEW CITY HALL

WEEK END WILL BE A ROUND OF COLORFUL ACTIVITIES FOR ALL ENTRIES IN QUEEN PROGRAM

Costume Ball And Theater Party Are Paramount Local Events

As a fitting climax to the activities centering about the Daly City Golden Gate Bridge Fiesta queen contest, the 30 attractive entries are participating in a week end of celebration replete with exciting events both in Daly City and in San Francisco.

This morning at 9 o'clock the entire group joined the cavalcade review, which assembled in the Fillmore, Van Ness, Union and Bay streets area in downtown San Francisco. At this time cavalcades from Canada, British Columbia, Mexico, all western states, the Redwood Empire and Southern California counties joined in a gigantic, colorful procession to the San Francisco side of the Golden Gate Bridge. Carried in two colorful stage coaches the young ladies representing Daly City passed in review with this group.

COSTUME BALL

This evening the queen contestants will be honored at a gala costume ball, Daly City Hall, 8 o'clock. A fine orchestra has been engaged for this event and dancing will be enjoyed until midnight. One of the features

STOCKTON RITES OBSERVED FIRST OF THIS WEEK

Former Pioneer Merchant Served As City Treasurer

Following a lingering illness, Alfred L. Stockton, 59, city treasurer of Daly City since 1916 and a pioneer merchant, died last Sunday, May 23. Funeral services, under the direction of W. C. Lasswell & Co., were held at 2 p. m. Tuesday of this week at the Daly City Masonic Temple. Interment was at Cypress Lawn Cemetery.

The deceased was founder and president of the A. L. Stockton Lumber Company of Daly City. For many years he served as secretary of the board of directors of the Daly City Bank, holding the same post when the organization became a branch of the Bank of America.

Stockton was a past worshipful master of the Crocker Lodge No. 454, F. & A. M. He likewise was active in the building of the Masonic Temple at Daly City.

During the past several months the office of city treasurer has been handled by his widow, Mrs. Florence Stockton.

Besides his widow, Stockton is survived by three children, Alfred, Marjorie and Florence Stockton, all of Daly City, and the following brothers and sisters, Eleanor, James, Louis and Arthur Stockton.

ALLOCATE $500 TO BUILD NEW OUTFALL SEWER

Ordinance Passed By City Council To Abate Weeds

The Daly City Board of Councilmen appropriated $500, Monday evening of this week, to assist in paying construction costs of a new outfall sewer line to replace the old wooden flume which runs toward Lake Merced. The county and two golf courses which the sewer will also serve are appropriating funds to the project.

Councilmen passed an ordinance to abate the weed nuisance on local streets. The board meeting adjourned in respect of the late A. L. Stockton.

HI CORNERSTONE LAYING DRAWS BIG ATTENDANCE

Newspapers, List Of Civic Leaders, Officials And Programs Sealed Up

Several hundred friends of Jefferson Union High School and many alumni members of the school attended the impressive cornerstone laying ceremonies for the new gymnasium and swimming pool last Sunday afternoon.

Principal James Ferguson presided and introduced Mrs. Stella M. Jensen, clerk of the board, who greeted those present on behalf of the Board of Education. Mrs. Jensen stated in part: "Our youth of today, the citizens of tomorrow, will gather within these walls and, through personal contact with the splendid members of our faculty, they will receive that cultural training which will better equip them to take their places in world affairs.

EXPRESS GRATITUDE

A sense of deep gratitude envelops me as I attempt to thank all who labored for this great project. Even our mighty government recognized our need and by substantial assistance in the form of a grant gave us the stimulus and encouragement which we needed so badly in our darkest hour of doubt.

"With your permission I should like to mention one whose efforts in behalf of this school and the youth of our district has been and is most outstanding. One who has labored untiringly and unceasingly that we may have a school plant second to none within our means to provide. One who has carried the burden of

Publisher And Wife Are Enjoying Trip

W. E. Pitschke, publisher of the Daly City Record, and his wife are enjoying their vacation trip East, friends were informed by postal cards this week.

Mrs. Pitschke writes from Cheyenne, Wyo.: "We feel at home on the range. In the morning (May 23) we will again continue eastward and reach North Platte and possibly farther tomorrow. Bill is not hurrying and we take time to do a lot of sightseeing as we travel."

MAJESTIC UNDER VIEW OF SPAN

THE GATE BRIDGE OPENS

Among the many wonders of the world within the borders of California, another takes its place this week—a new, man made colossus of steel and concrete that brings realization, at last, to a dream decades old.

It is the bridge across the Golden Gate, the greatest single suspension span in the world; and the bay cities, with the whole West participating, are observing its opening in a celebration appropriately immense. From May 27 to June 2 it lasts, with the United States battle fleet and its air squadron taking part, with colorful cavalcades from Canada and Mexico, with parades and pageants, regattas and speeches and ballroom festivities.

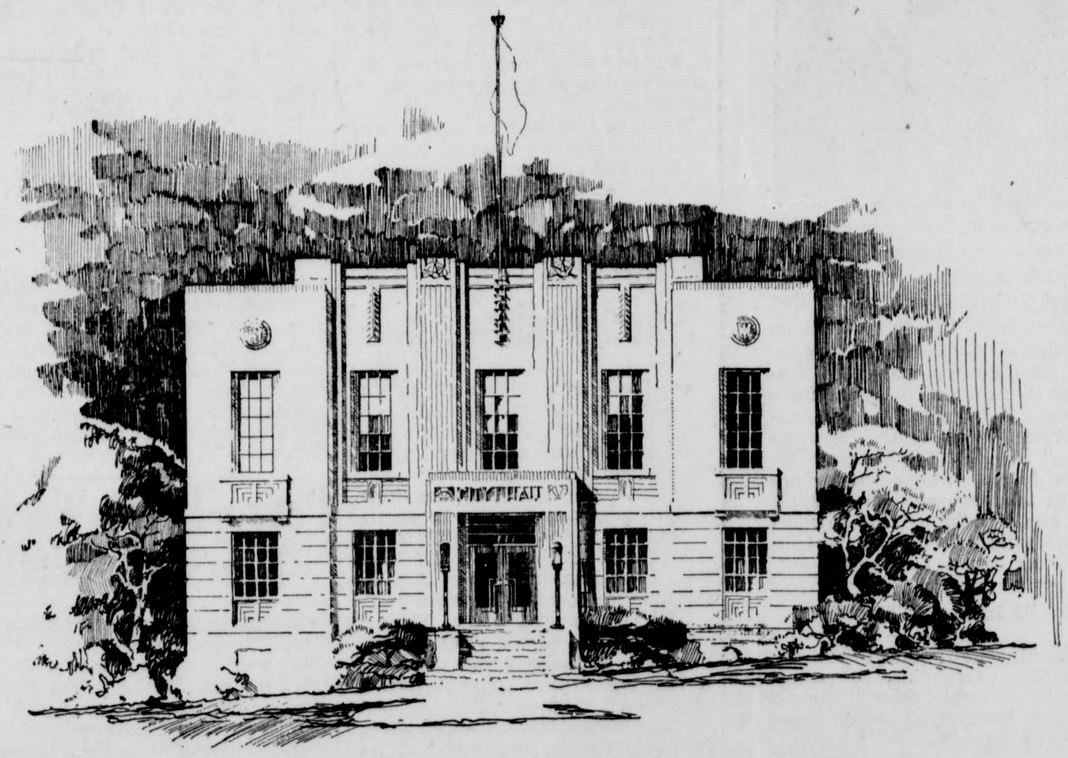
What a bridge this is!

Its towers of steel are the highest—746 feet, the tallest structures west of New York. Its sweeping cables, gracefully suspending a roadbed 246 feet above water, are the longest ever spun.

For sheer size and majesty, it dwarfs such other engineering triumphs as the George Washington bridge across the Hudson, the Ambassador bridge at Detroit, and even either of the two suspension spans of its neighbor, the San Francisco Bay Bridge.

The rest of the world, outdone, looks on as the Golden Gate Bridge opens. So do the men who wouldn't listen when experts said, "It can't be done;" and perhaps looking on also are the ghosts of those dreamers who first envisioned such a bridge more than half a hundred years ago and were laughed at for their dreams.

CITY HALL CARRIES TUESDAY BY CLOSE MARGIN



Modernistic structure will be erected on present city hall site and additional corner lot at Wellington avenue and Irvington street.

MODERN FIRE PROOF STRUCTURE TO HOUSE EXECUTIVE OFFICES PUBLIC MEETING HALL AND JAIL

Fire Alarm Extension Into Southern Section Of City To Be Made

Daly City is to have a new city hall and an improved fire alarm system, according to the vote polled in the bond issue election held here Tuesday of this week.

The endorsement of a bond issue to finance the construction of a modern and efficient city hall assures new prestige and progress to this city. This modernistic two story building, to house courtroom, meeting hall and public offices, will facilitate departmental efficiency. No longer will city government and public meetings be housed by a fire hazard of inadequate size.

Cost of the erection of this municipal structure will amount to $53,000. However, a government grant will cover $19,000 of the amount. The present city hall will be razed and the new building will occupy the present site on Wellington avenue and the corner lot at Wellington avenue and Irvington street.

ALARM EXTENSION

The extension of an effective fire alarm system into the southern section of the city was also endorsed by

SPAN TO OPEN TO ALL TRAFFIC AT NOON TODAY

Momentous Signal Awaited By San Francisco Crowds

President Franklin D. Roosevelt will press a button in Washington exactly at noon, Pacific Coast time, today (Friday).

A split second later screaming whistles and roaring guns will deafen the San Francisco Bay area and the Golden Gate Bridge will be declared open to traffic of the world.

On tiptoes of excitement a packed and jammed San Francisco awaits that momentous signal. Hundreds of thousands from Canada, Mexico, all California and a big slice of Western America are here awaiting that signal. It is a signal that will reverberate around the world.

It will mark the rip tide of an ocean of enthusiasm and festivity such as San Francisco has never known.

It will find the entire city with its hair down and its belt loosened ready to jump with both feet into the biggest, gayest, most spectacular and most significant celebration it has ever known, and, in the nearly two hundred years since its beginning, this city by the Golden Gate has known many a festival that has made history.

In the week long Golden Gate Bridge Fiesta, today is the day of days in San Francisco.

Pedestrians had exclusive view of the giant span yesterday.

ABOLISH OFFICE OF PUBLICITY MAN IN COUNTY

Planning Adviser Finished Work He Was Engaged To Do Says Board

On July 1 two appointive officers of San Mateo County will be dismissed, it was announced this week by the Board of Supervisors.

No provision has been made in the new salary budget for continuance of the county publicity department. It is reported that the board unanimously agreed that the full time position of county publicity director is not required. The equivalent of the salary of the publicity director, $3000, probably will be set up in an advertising fund which will form the nucleus of a fund to finance county participation in the Golden Gate International Exposition. Such moneys will be administered by the director

Shall Still Work For Improvements

With hundreds of other local citizens I reviewed the results of the election of this week with a feeling that there was a misunderstanding of the dire need for these improvements in our city.

I sincerely believe that the people who voted against the proposed betterment plan had not thoroughly realized the need for these improvements to our welfare and progress.

As Mayor of Daly City and with the other members of the council I shall continue to work for the acquisition of civic improvements for which there is an imperative need here.

Signed:

PAUL G. SELMI,
Mayor.

this project since its inception, and who stands ever ready to do a little more, leaving nothing undone that would lessen the educational advance and advantages of our youth. It was his idea, followed by his understanding of how to carry it out, and coupled with his encouragement to the Board of Trustees, that made this addition to our school possible. I am speaking of our principal, Mr. James Ferguson."

Mr. A. Vireno, chairman of the board, in a few words expressed deep gratitude for the interest that the community has taken in the project.

GUEST SPEAKER

The main speaker of the afternoon was Dr. Dexter, state superintendent of public instruction, who emphasized the physical education in the life of the youth of today. Dr. Dexter, because of his given personal interest in his special field of work, made the trip to the bay area especially to be present at the cornerstone laying.

Pansy Jewett Abbott, county superintendent of schools, was present and expressed words of appreciation and gratitude to the district for the fine progress made in their program which will mean so much to this section of San Mateo County.

In this scene Miss Dill sings a little French song to the frog who is really Prince Charming turned into a frog by the wicked witches, titled "The Enchanted Frog."

To Stage Yarmarka As Part Of Fiesta

More than 300 members of San Francisco's colorful and historic Russian colony will take part in the Yarmarka (Russian Fair) to be staged and costumed by the Russian Music Society in Sigmund Stern Grove, Nineteenth avenue and Sloat boulevard in San Francisco, May 29, 30 and 31.

According to Sergio Mihailoff, president of the Russian Music Society, the Yarmarka will be one of the spectacular features of the Golden Gate Bridge Fiesta.

It will transform Stern Grove into a bit of Russia before the revolution and depict the part Russians have played in the history of San Francisco since they first settled at and built Fort Ross in 1812. Oldest, and one of the largest foreign colonies in San Francisco is that of Russian Hill whose residents retain many old-time Russian customs and much old-time sentiment.

New Ford Radio Has Maximum Reception

Equipped with a newly developed outside aerial designed to provide maximum reception efficiency, the improved Ford radio for 1937 is expected to set a record for new car installations in the coming year.

The percentage of Ford cars equipped with radios in 1936 was considerably greater than in 1935, and a continuance of this upward trend in the popularity of the Ford car radio is anticipated for 1937.

"Performance of the new six tube set is greatly enhanced by the method of installation," say local Ford dealers. Extensive tests showed the importance of having the radio set engineered for the car, and the car for the set. In the course of the development of the 1937 Ford car, radio engineers worked closely with car engineers. With almost every important change in body design, a compensating change was effected in the radio.

This results in good radio performance with a minimum of car interference. It provides long distance reception and strength of signals without requiring too much power from the car battery. Noises at the lower frequency end of the broadcast band have been diminished, and ignition noises have been greatly reduced without the use of suppressors. The set has a new shielded lead-in which serves to reduce inherent set noise.

VFW Buddy Poppies To Go On Sale

Official V. F. W. Buddy poppies will be sold on the streets of Daly City May 27, 28 and 29. Residents are invited to purchase a symbolic flower and assist in the welfare program carried on by the veteran organization.

Revenue from poppy sales is used to support worthy disabled men and widows and children of soldiers who were killed or incapacitated in the war.

Motorists Urged To Watch Fellow Ahead

On the open road—in city traffic, too—keep an eye on the fellow driving toward you. Watch him closely if he keeps turning his head toward his companion.

These traffic twisters with "turntable" necks can usually be spotted a hundred yards away. Their cars often jiggle back and forth across the center line, as though they are about to lose control of the wheel.

Give them a wide berth. Keep on your own side of the road—as near the edge of the pavement as possible. Try a blast of your horn to make them snap out of it.

Many "unexplained" accidents are probably due to the bad habit of turning the head, instead of watching the road. Help prevent accidents by keeping your mind on your driving and your eyes on the road.

ACTIVITIES FOR CANDIDATES IN QUEEN CONTEST

of the evening will be two duets by Ferne Crawford, one of the queen contestants, and her sister of 41 Como street.

Saturday and Sunday have been left open so that the young ladies may spend the time with their families reviewing the main downtown celebrations.

Monday evening will find the group at the Dreamland Auditorium, Post and Steiner streets, to witness the Industrial and Manufacturers Exposition and an all star stage show, beginning at 8:45 o'clock. Following the stage production the queen entries will remain to witness the wedding of the first couple to be married in San Francisco on June 1.

CONTEST ENDS

Tuesday, June 1, an already exciting day for the girls because it sees the termination of the contest, will be even more fascinating, for the general fiesta committee has invited the Daly City group to attend the military ball at the Civic Auditorium, San Francisco Civic Center.

After an hour spent at this gala ball the queen entries will motor hastily back to Daly City for the gigantic midnight show to be held at the Daly City Theater. During the program of the midnight show the queen of Daly City will be crowned at an impressive ceremony. All queen entries will be in attendance. A large turnout of townspeople is anticipated for the coronation.

The young ladies participating in the queen contest have expressed sincere appreciation for the fine cooperation and support offered by the Daly City merchants during this contest. Loyal local merchants have made possible the success of the local fiesta.

Baden Kennel Club Opens Monday

Baden Kennel Club, popular greyhound racing oval at South San Francisco, will start its 1937 meeting Monday evening of next week. Hundreds of racing dogs have been "prepped" for the opening and Presiding Judge H. M. Barton assures the fans the same high caliber competition that has always characterized Baden meetings.

Orange avenue, and the road leading to the track have been widened and repaved to accommodate the heavy traffic.

A new top has been placed on the racing strip to assure fast, sure footing for the purebred racing dogs.

An innovation at the 1937 meeting will be the "safety hurdles" which promise to encourage kennel owners to enter top dogs in the barrier events. The new hurdles virtually eliminate the danger of injury to the dogs. The straw hurdles, formerly supported by a sturdy wooden base, are now held upright in flexible rubber standards which merely retards the progress of jumpers who fail to clear the barrier.

Students Week End At Mountain Cabin

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Price, Colma, entertained a large group of Jefferson Union High School students over the week end at their mountain cabin in the Santa Cruz mountains, near Boulder Creek.

Those enjoying the affair were Beverly Bright, Louise Savelly, Margaret Hawthorne, Elaine Wadiker, Evelyn Clanton, Virginia Faulk, Beatrice Lipman, Ann Coy, Genevieve and Eleanor Price; Bob Savelly, Russel Antrocole, Dale Hilts, Leon Stansbury, Dick Millet, Jack Wilson, Tom Monahan, Dick Wilson, Bob Lee, Bob Marion, Steve Brosson, Bob Funge, Dave Gaggero, Walter Aschenbrenner. Pedro Point Work Nears Completion

Work is progressing rapidly on the Ocean Shore highway with only a short rock cut to be made at Devil's Slide on Pedro Point before the section between Rockaway Beach and Montara will be completed, the county right of way agent reported this week following a survey of the coastside.

The new section probably will be open early in the summer.

Oil Spare Tire Lock

A few drops of oil should be applied to the spare tire lock every time the car is lubricated.

Because many motorists fail to take this precaution, mechanics often find it necessary to break the lock in order to change a tire.

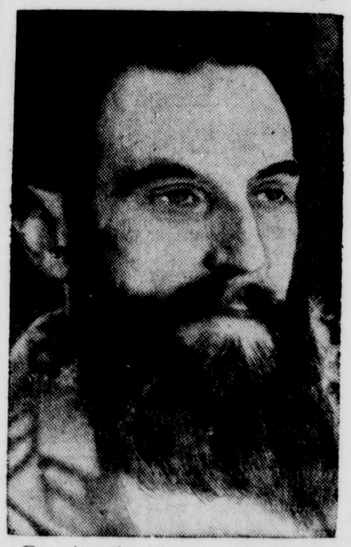
Russians Establish Polar Base On Moscow-S. F. Airway



Braving the bitter cold of polar wastes, eleven intrepid Russian scientists and explorers recently landed their plane on an ice floe 13 miles from the North Pole to establish the first permanent polar base for a proposed air route between Moscow and San Francisco. Dr. Otto J. Schmidt (above), director of the soviet "northern sea route," led the flight from Rudolph Island, where four more planes are preparing to take off with supplies. Dotted line on chart at left indicates route of contemplated air line to California.

LESSER OF THE TWO

During the political campaign a candidate strode into a newspaper office. "Look here," he cried, "you've been printing lies about me in your paper."

"That's right," replied the editor. "I know it, but what would you do if we told the truth about you?"—American Legion Monthly.

WORKMEN SPEED TREASURE ISLE SITE TO FINISH

Reclamation Of Site For 1939 Fair Now 95 Per Cent Completed

Uncle Sam's new possession, the island which is being reclaimed from the bottom of San Francisco Bay as a site for the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition, this week neared completion as thousands of workmen sped the task of building the World Fair site.

HUGE TASK

Reclamation of the 400 acre Treasure Island, at a cost of $3,803,000, is now 95 per cent completed. This task has entailed the placing of twenty million cubic yards of black sand and other material inside a three mile sea-wall which was built with 280,000 tons of rock. The deadline for completion of the island is July 1.

Already, towers and palaces of a modern Atlantis are rising on Treasure Island. Construction of the first two main exhibit palaces, at a cost of $800,000, is now approximately 70 per cent completed. After the close of the exposition, these two palaces will be permanent hangars for the metropolitan airport planned on Treasure Island.

OTHER WORK

Other construction on which work is going forward on the island includes: permanent administration building, cost $800,000; ferry slips, $450,000; block of exhibit palaces, $7,000,000. In addition, work has just been started on a $600,000 six lane highway connection linking Treasure Island to the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge. Total cost of the pre-exposition construction program is $16,000,000.

COURAGE

The Mothers Club of Bethel No. 26 will hold a whist, Thursday of next week, at the home of Mrs. Volkman, 49 Moltke street, Daly City.

Present Two Plans To Relieve Traffic

Two plans for overcoming the problem of getting peninsula traffic into downtown San Francisco, accentuated by the opening of the Bay and Golden Gate Bridges, are now under consideration, it was revealed this week by County Planning Technician Ronald Campbell.

One calls for the construction of an automobile viaduct following the route of the Southern Pacific steam line, which would carry traffic swiftly from the San Mateo County line to the heart of San Francisco.

The other proposes an "insulated" highway, with few side street entrances, following the general route of Alemany boulevard.

Campbell said the viaduct would be far the most expensive project. The proposed boulevard, parked and insulated to protect abutting property, follows suggestions laid down for extension of Junipero Serra boulevard.

Local Girl Honored At Bridal Shower

Mrs. Eric Diebel of Bellevue avenue honored her sister, Miss Alma Harper, with a miscellaneous bridal shower, Friday evening of last week. The bride-to-be received many lovely gifts. HUMAN PARASITES

The National Board of Fire Underwriters reports that the horrible school explosion at New London, Texas, has created renewed interest throughout the United States in the self-inspection blank for schools prepared by the board and first distributed in 1934. The blank makes it possible for school authorities to thoroughly check over buildings and unearth any and all hazards, and has been officially approved by the National Association of Public School Business Officials.

More than 950 communities in this country have used the blank so far, and 373,000 copies of it have been sent out. No charge is made for the blank, and it is suitable for schools of all types and sizes. The board suggests that inspections be made at least once a month—new hazards are constantly appearing in buildings—by a group comprising a teacher, a janitor and a representative of the fire department.

Any school which has not taken advantage of the self-inspection blank should remedy that oversight immediately. The percentage of American schools, including new ones, which contain dangerous hazards is staggering. Inadequate exits, doors which open the wrong way, stair wells which would fan flames in case a fire broke out—these are only a few of the common school fire hazards.

It is too late now to save the hundreds of children who died horribly and needlessly at New London. But their deaths will not have been in vain if that catastrophe is the means of bringing to school boards and teachers full realization of potential hazards, and spurring a determined campaign to make our schools safe.

VICIOUS WHISPERS

"Rumour," wrote Shakespeare, "is a pipe blown by surmises, jealousies, conjectures." So one or another of American Presidents have found, and that an evil report, however baselessly set afloat, is hard to overtake with fact. A "whispering campaign" of slanderous or insinuating stories passed from a loose tongue to a suspicious ear and often enlarged in repetition has been a recurrent abuse in American politics.

The injustice and tragedy that can be wrought by such irresponsible and malicious gossiping was exemplified poignantly enough, one would think, in one of its instances—in the campaign which is generally held to have cost the life of the wife of General Andrew Jackson. But it began even earlier with the false imputation of atheism to Jefferson, and has continued since in the times of Van Buren, Garfield, Cleveland, Theodore Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson, to crop out in the "poison pen" books against President Hoover.

News reports in recent weeks have brought into the open a similar circulation of rumors purporting to deal with the physical condition and the mental stability of President Roosevelt. These have been promptly labeled absurd by Washington correspondents, including those of anti-administration newspapers, who have opportunity to question and observe the President at least twice a week.

However heartily one may disagree with a man on questions of political judgment, it is certainly a disgraceful business to be led by any disagreement to impugn his rationality instead of arguing out the issues on their merits. Those who insist on the grandeur of man and the supremacy of mental powers over evil circumstances should surely disbelieve that eventual disaster must follow an infirmity long since overcome. And those who recognize the mesmeric tendency of reiterated fears, suspicious and dark predictions ought certainly to be the last to lend themselves to a mass suggestion that would add to the burdens of their chief magistrate.

Rather is it the true part of all citizens to pray that divine support and guidance may continually surround all officials in whose hands the common welfare lies.

Lesson Sermon Of Christian Science

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon Sunday, May 30, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The Golden Text will be: "I am with thee to save thee and to deliver thee, saith the Lord. And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible" (Jer. 15: 20, 21). Other Bible citations will include: "For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:" (II Thess. 2: 7, 8).

The Lesson-Sermon will also include the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The truths of immortal Mind sustain man, and they annihilate the fables of mortal mind, whose flimsy and gaudy pretensions, like silly moths, singe their own wings and fall into dust" (p. 103).

Protect Florists On Memorial Day

Warning that flower peddlers who operate on the highways on Memorial Day will be subject to arrest unless they first obtain sales tax permits, was issued this week by a member of the State Board of Equalization.

"This type of operator is competing with florists who operate under an all year overhead," the warning stated, "and as a matter of justice to established dealers, the state will strictly enforce the provisions restraining retail sales by persons who do not have a sales tax permit."

Democratic Club Will Hold Dance

Members of the Twenty-first Assembly Democratic Club will stage a monster victory dance at the Ocean Beach Gardens, Saturday evening of next week. Harry Livin, chairman of the event, reports that arrangements have been made for refreshments, lunches, and music.

The Democratic Club anticipates a large crowd for this gala event of the spring season.

Caution At Night Urged On Drivers

"Slow down at sundown," motorists were urged in a statement made this week by the Public Safety Department of the California State Automobile Association, which pointed out that night accidents now account for nearly sixty per cent of all motor fatalities and are on the increase as longer evenings and vacation motoring bring more automobiles on the highways.

With motor deaths already running twenty-five per cent ahead of last year, and May and June normally a period for a sharp upward trend that lasts throughout the year, motorists should exercise extreme caution in night driving. That accidents are more serious after dark is indicated by the fact that one out of every twenty night accident injuries prove fatal, as compared to about one out of forty during daylight hours.

Numerous factors enter into the seriousness of night accidents. Headlights, including those in the best condition, do not give as much sight distance ahead as the motorist has in the daytime.

Warning signs and pedestrians cannot be as easily distinguished. Many motorists drive even faster at night, with the result that crashes are more serious. And heavy commercial use of the highways, particularly in the vicinity of large cities, adds to the after-dark dangers on the road for the motorist who takes a chance.

Many Drive Without 1937 License Plates

More than 21,000 motorists in California are driving without their 1937 license certificates, because they have failed to change their addresses or have given their street numbers incorrectly, the state registrar of vehicles announced this week.

Added to the number of unclaimed certificates, the department has in its unclaimed file 1,277 license plates which have been returned by postmasters with the notation, "moved," or "unclaimed."

Applicants who have not yet received their certificates or their plates, are urged to immediately contact the nearest branch office of the department so that further delay may be avoided.

CLEVER FELLOW

George Bernard Shaw once addressed a company as follows: "I suppose that you seldom think. Few people think more than two or three times a year. I have made an international reputation for myself by thinking once or twice a week."

AMERICAN FRIENDSHIP IS EXAMPLE TO WORLD

By J. W. MARCHBANK
Pioneer in Frontier Mining Work

There was a celebration last Sunday in Queen Victoria Park, Niagara Falls, Canada, that was of lively interest to every citizen of both the United States and of Canada. The impressive ceremonies were under the direction of a committee representing the two neighboring countries. It was Peace Day. The exercises commemorated the 120th anniversary of the signing of the Rush-Bagot agreement between Great Britain and the United States outlawing fortifications on the Canada-United States boundary.

Exemplifying that "burying the hatchet" is possible is shown by the cordial relations of this country and the dominion to the north. It was not always so. The period of more than a century of good-will came after the hatred that engendered the War of 1812.

As was stated in a very readable article in the New York Herald Tribune such an arrangement as that abolishing defenses on frontiers of neighboring countries is unusual. It was sometime following the cessation of the hostilities of the War of 1812 that a beginning was made in establishing a spirit of comity. Great Britian sent Sir Charles Bagot to Washington in 1816 as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary with instructions to use his best efforts toward a reconciliation.

Sir Charles was a born diplomat. He pretended he was charmed to be on this side of the Atlantic although he suffered quite a bit from the summer heat of Washington. He also missed the kind of sophisticated society he had been accustomed to in European capitals.

One thing to the advantage of the Britisher was that the United States was not disposed to spend money for forts on its northern boundary. Richard Rush, acting Secretary of State, made the suggestion that both Canada and the United States cease to have any military or naval activities on the border. Bagot hastened to urge his government to assent, believing such an arrangement would bring about an era of peace.

The pact made in 1817 provided each country was to build no fortifications and was to maintain four vessels on the Great Lakes restricted to 100 tons each. The only armament on the craft was an eighteen-ball cannon. It was obvious their use was solely for the enforcement of navigation regulations. To this day they are looked upon as symbols of peace.

It would not be much of a surprise if some day the provisions of the Rush-Bagot agreement were incorporated into a formal treaty.

Sometimes not only two nations but twenty-two can make an agreement that is all to the good. Recently the larger number of countries signed a world sugar pact. Quotas were set for each of the exporting countries which are to be maintained for a period of five years.

The agreement contains a provision for a permanent international council which may make uniform changes in the quotas. The first test of the new pact has come in the demand of cane growers of Louisiana that they be given an enlarged quota in the sugar control bill now before Congress.

It is estimated the proposal from Louisana would add millions to the annual sugar bill of the consumers of the country.

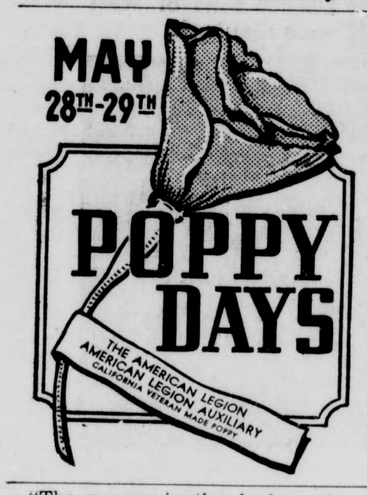
AUXILIARY PUTS LEGION POPPIES ON SALE TODAY

Needy Disabled Men Given Employment Making Symbolic Flower

Members of the Daly City Unit No. 410 American Legion Auxiliary are sponsoring this week, the sale of poppies for the aid of disabled veterans of the great war. These flowers, made by patients at the Palo Alto Facility, will be on sale today, Friday, and tomorrow, Saturday. Only by wearing these poppies on Memorial Day can these World War veterans be assured of security.



"The poppy is the badge of remembrance for those who sacrificed their lives in the country's service," Mrs. Crane, our official of the Auxiliary, said. "It stands for the highest type of patriotism that we can conceive. It recalls the spirit of those days when every American was dedicating his life, energies and resources to the national cause.

"Remembering those days, it is not difficult to understand why Americans were not daunted by the country's recent difficulties. A people who eighteen short years ago united with such devotion to meet the emergency of war, proved to have had the power to meet the emergencies of peace. The red paper poppy, that symbol of patriotic sacrifice, should awaken in all of our hearts a deeper conception of our own duties to our country today, and inspire us to give in peace the same type of service the men who died among the poppies in France gave in the great war. Also, let us not forget the living dead who occupy the many government hospitals throughout the land."

Traffic Casualties Increase For 1937

Traffic deaths for the first quarter of this year were 26 per cent higher than the corresponding period in 1936, reports the public safety department of the National Automobile Club. This means that traffic accidents killed 1700 more persons in January, February and March than were killed during the first three months of last year!

Seventeen hundred lives! That many more people killed on our streets and highways this year—and only for three months!

The traffic accident situation is far from hopeless, however. It is no more hopeless than the fight against disease, unemployment, or any other social ailment.

MAY REDUCE ACCIDENTS

The records of New York City, Omaha, Kansas City, Missouri and dozens of other cities throughout the country will back up this statement. But no city can decrease its accidents unless it has the whole-hearted support of its drivers and pedestrians. You fall into one of these groups. It's your duty to drive carefully or walk safely.

'SWING PARADE' TO CLOSE RUN AFTER JUNE 5

"Blind Alley" Will Be Next Play Produced Here By Federal Theater

Breaking all Western regional Federal Theater records for attendance, the long run of "Swing Parade," the gala musical revue at the Alcazar directed by Max Dill, will be closed Saturday night, June 5, to make room for "Blind Alley," the second touring company of the Federal Theaters to take the road.

"Swing Parade" has exceeded all expectations both in popularity and box office receipts. Its big cast of seventy-five actors, its many novel departures from the usual musical show, the appeal of its music have done more to win the favor of the San Francisco theater going public than any other production presented to date. Max Dill, one of the authors of the book together with Nat Goldstein, the composer, and Richard Melville have announced that they will start work on another play immediately "Swing Parade" has closed.

"Blind Alley" comes to the Alcazar after having phenominal success in New York and Los Angeles. It is a story of an unregenerate criminal and a master of psychology, the latter forced to become host to the outlaw. The outcome of the session, during which the psychologist puts his science to a test, is amazing in the extreme and productive of one of the most unusual and interesting plays of the year, according to advance reviews.

The order of services for this period follows: week day masses at 6, 7:30, and 9 a. m.; Sunday masses at the usual hours; afternoon services at 3:30 p. m.; evening services at 8 p. m.

San Mateo People Have High Income

After paying its rent and food bills, the average family in San Mateo County had more money left for spending in 1936 than did those in other counties in the three Pacific states of Washington, Oregon and California, according to a general survey of spending power made by Sales Management, New York.

The data shows that the San Mateo County family had an effective buying income, a figure which takes into account the cost of living, of $2762. This compared favorably with the $2240 for families throughout the country and the $2392 average for the Pacific states. California families, however, enjoyed buying incomes of $2485.

Living standards in San Mateo County compare favorably. There were 357 passenger cars for every 1000 residents during 1936 as against 182 in the country at large. Income tax returns were made by 77 out of each 1000 in the local county and by 34 in the rest of the country.

MAIN SPAN STRETCHES 4/5 MILE OVER SEA

Bridge Towers 746 Feet High Among Tallest Structures Ever Built by Man

SAN FRANCISCO—This city is engaged this week in a five-day fiesta to celebrate the opening of the new $35,000,000 Golden Gate Bridge, which spans an arm of the open sea and connects San Francisco with the Marin territory and Redwood Empire to the north.

The structure has an overall length of 6,450 feet, and a main span of 4,200 feet—4/5 of a mile—which makes it the longest suspension bridge in the world. It breaks the last major water barrier on the all-Pacific Coast highway route from Mexico to the Canadian border, and gives the growing city of San Francisco new room for expansion in the formerly inaccessible Marin County.

The new Golden Gate Bridge, which is the fruition of many years of planning and effort, was designed and constructed under the supervision of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District, headed by William P. Filmer. Joseph B. Strauss was the chief engineer. The fabrication and construction work on the towers and superstructure was done by the Bethlehem Steel Company.

As the five-day celebration got under way, with visiting notables from three nations in attendance, W. H. Stewart, vice-president of the Bethlehem Steel Company with headquarters at San Francisco, whose company fabricated and constructed the gigantic towers and steel framework of the bridge, stated that it contains 100,000 tons of steel. The bridge measures 6,450 feet overall and comprises a main span of 4,200 feet between the two towers, and two side spans of 1,125 feet each. The steel superstructure supports a roadway 90 feet in width, which provides 6 traffic lanes and 2 sidewalks each 11 feet wide. Capacity will not be taxed by the passage of 250,000 vehicles every 24 hours.

Each of the two towers is a skyscraper in itself, reaching a height of 746 feet above the ground. This is nearly as high as New York's Woolworth Building and 313 feet higher than the Russ Building, San Francisco's tallest office building. The Golden Gate Bridge towers rank among the 10 tallest structures in the entire world.

"Construction of the steel work on the main span presented many new problems," Mr. Stewart stated, "for the reason that the span of 4,200 feet—over four-fifths of a mile—was 700 feet longer than had ever before been attempted. The span is 220 feet above the water level at the center of the bridge, and had to be constructed over the open sea."

Right: Men working at the top of one of the towers, 746 feet above the sea. Note men wearing miners' lamps used in travelling up and down ladders inside the towers.

Towers are 746 feet high—taller than most skyscrapers and among the 10 highest structures ever built by man. The roadway, which is 250 feet above water, is 90 feet wide and provides 6 traffic lanes, as well as 2 lanes for pedestrians. The bridge connects San Francisco with Marin County and gives the growing city new room for expansion.

Cub Pack To Hold Field Meet At Park

The mere fact that local voters did not O. K. the improvement of the Vista Grande Park has not dampened the spirits of members of Cub Pack No. 141. They had hoped to be the first organization to use the new park, but as one boy remarked, "We will just use the old one."

A field meet is planned for tomorrow (Saturday) beginning at 11 a. m. Boys, their mothers and scout officials will have lunch at the park site. Badges are to be awarded. Afternoon activities will include games, contests and entertainment.

TANFORAN FUTURITY STIRS UP BREEDERS

By J. W. MARCHBANK

Indications are a marked increase will be made in the number of entries to the Tanforan Futurity of 1939 over that to the 1938 running. Many inquiries have been received as to the date of the closing of nominations. It is the policy of the Tanforan management to close stakes on the fifteenth of the month of August, but on account of the fifteenth falling this year on Sunday the date has been moved along to the sixteenth.

Blanks for the race have been mailed to every breeder in the country. As is well known, Tanforan Futurity eligibility is not restricted as to foaling place; the two year old feature is open to the whole world.

The notion that early closing stakes, especially for two year olds, help in building up the breeding industry is a true one. And everyone knows breeding must be encouraged. New horses are needed constantly to take the places of those beyond the age of usefulness on the racing strip.

When it comes to improving the calibre of the gallopers in over-night events there is nothing more important than the employment of worth-while stallions in the breeding paddock. The stallions are likely to come from the ranks of colts nominated in earlier years to such events as the Tanforan Futurity. Broodmares, too, come from the same source.

The Tanforan Futurity will be run for the first time next year. For the first running 178 nominations were made by leading breeders, East and West. Counting on the augmented interest in the second running it is easy to estimate perhaps one hundred more for the race in 1939. In later years even more of an increase is altogether likely.

The race is at one mile, a distance affording a good test both as to the speed and stamina of young thoroughbreds. It is run in the late fall when each trainer has more or less of a line on the capabilities of his young charges. With the substantial amount of $10,000 added the Tanforan Futurity appears destined to take its place among the glamorous

Miss Della Mae Breakie

Miss Della Mae Breakie and Albert H. Boynton will have the first June, 1937, rendezvous with cupid in San Francisco.

They will be married at one minute past midnight of May 31, virtually one minute a. m. June 1.

The wedding will be a feature of the Golden Gate Bridge Fiesta celebration and will take place at Dreamland Auditorium, Post and Steiner streets, San Francisco. Relatives and associates of the couple are cordially invited to attend the affair.

Miss Breakie, the daughter of a fine southern family, comes to the San Francisco Bay area with an enviable record of experience and accomplishment.

This time as associate editor of the college newspaper and editor-in-chief of the yearbook. As a student industrial employe she headed the college publicity department. LIVELY PARADE AWAKENS DALY CITY MONDAY

Music, Flares, Cheers Pull Large Group Of Local Spectators

All six fire departments, Daly City Band, Eagles Drum Corps, J. F. F. girls club, thirty queen candidates carried in stage coaches, a dozen wild west riders, and approximately 100 automobiles and trucks carrying loyal citizens paraded over all local streets, Monday evening of this week, to arouse interest of the populace in the bond issue election, Tuesday, May 25.

Many people have expressed the opinion that this was one of the liveliest, most spectacular parades ever staged in Daly City. Stirring music from the band and drill corp, the shriek of fire sirens, and the cheers of children drew hundreds of local residents to the curbs and windows to witness the procession.

Queen candidates, togged in good old western style and riding in a stage coach and covered wagon, lent a note of color. The horsemen of the evening escorted the queen coaches.

At 10 p. m. the parade was terminated and the crowd adjourned to the city hall for a mass meeting concerning the bond issues.

Legion Dance Was Notable Success

Women Visitors Like New Types

Women visiting salesrooms of the National Auto Co., local Lincoln-Zephyr dealer, are especially attracted to the new Lincoln-Zephyr coupe sedan with two doors, one of the four popular "first anniversary" series body types.

However, men and women alike have expressed their pleasure at the smartly streamlined 1937 cars which feature a new frontal appearance and many striking interior improvements.

Smartest detail of the interior is a new instrument panel and grille masking the car heater and radio installations. A new luggage compartment arrangement permits access through the rear deck hatch. The car is powered by the 110 horsepower V-12 Lincoln-Zephyr engine. Steering and ease of parking have been appreciably improved by refinements in gear design.

Many Events Vie For Attention on Campus
